Vendor Contract:

1. Payment is due in full along with your application. If you are unable to attend and you notify us before August 15th, you will receive a refund. After August 15th, your fee will be forfeited. Booth fees are used to pay for facilities and advertising. We reserve the right to refuse a vendor application at any time without reason.
2. Liability for any loss to the vendors/exhibitors is not the responsibility of the expo committee or the facility. Vendors are urged to carry insurance covering trade shows and fairs. In addition, any disputes between vendors/exhibitors and the public will be handled by the vendors/exhibitors. The expo committee is not responsible for handling these disputes.
3. Vendors must conform to all local law enforcement and fire codes, health regulations, electrical codes and any other city, local, state and federal laws and regulations. Burning candles or incense is strictly prohibited. Liquid displays require prior committee approval. Absolutely no alcohol or cannabis products are allowed on the premises.
4. Aisles and exits MUST remain clear of all obstacles. All tables, chairs and signage MUST remain within your booth. Do NOT nail, screw, staple, or pin anything to the walls, tables, or floors. The only approved tape is blue painter's tape. NO DUCT TAPE. Vendors are responsible for determining how to display signage, but NOTHING is allowed to be attached to the walls of the facility. There will be S-hooks and peg hooks available for signage. Vendors are responsible for their own table coverings.
5. Expo committee reserves the right to cancel or reschedule the expo with a 30-day notice. The expo may be canceled without notice due to venue damage or an act of nature. Vendors agree to not hold the expo committee, facility, or any volunteers or successors liable for damage or injury that may occur at this event.

I have read and agree to the above contract and understand it is legally binding.
